jelo-3t R. W. WALKER & SON, 1006 F st. FORT MYER HEIGHTS-IT IS THE DESIRE OF jei0-3t R. W. WALKER & SON, 1006 F st.

FORT MYER HEIGHTS—IT IS THE DESIRE OF every one to invest their money where it will make money. It is with this fact in view when we ask you to see our property. We challenge you to visit every suburb advertised, known or heard of around Washington; then let us show you our property, and be convinced that our property, for the price asked, exceeds all others for speculation or a home. Aside from the speculative feature, if you wish your wife and children to enjey good health and develop mentally and physically, breethe pure air, drink pure water, have shade, lawn, vines, flowers, garden and a large pinza, with a grand view of Washington and the Potomac river, and be surrounded by such hon e influences where the human mind reaches its height of cultivation, then buy in Fort Myer Heights. Is it not crimical on your part to permit your family to merely exist in a four-wall-prison apartment or block house, where the same rent would soon pay for a home which your family is justly entitled to? Besides, who receives the increase in value to your rented home? Andrew Carnegie echoes what all shrewd investors confirm when he sald more fortunes were accumulated from real estate investments than all other causes combined. Remember, more electric and steam rafiroads have been constructed through our section in the last few years than all other suburbs around Washington.
Besides, we are only 5 squares from Capital Traction and Metropolitan cars. Lots across the river sold recently at $1.00 a sq. ft.; the same lots could have been purchased a few years ago at 1c. a foot—a hint to the future of our property for speculators. Carringes will call at your house to she w property. Lots 50x100 to 290x300.
Prices, 8c. to 20c. a sq. ft. Terms, $10 cash, $10 mouthly, or one-third cesh, bal. 1, 2, 3 years. 5/6

TRAINS ON WASHINGTON AND OHIO DIVI-These street car conductors have troubles of their own. A conductor has to struggle with a company rule that he must get off his car and run ahead to see if the track is clear at each railroad cross-ing and must personally inspect every bridge before his car crosses it. To most passengers this rule is a familiar one, but it was not known to a dear old tady who came in from Wauwatosa to spend the day with her daughter. after she had boarded the crosstown car at East Water street the conductor said: "Fare, please," and she handed him a dollar. The coin had hardly dropped into his large red paw before he gave a con-vulsive start, jumped frantically from the car and ran away, "Thief, stop thief," screamed the old lady in a panic of alarm. "He has got my dollar." With an ability remarkable in one of her years, she sprang from her seat and scrambled from the car in hot pursuit of the bluecoated bell ringer, who had so evidently robbed her. The car was not in motion and she found him standing on the bridge. Grabbing him fiercely by the arm she shook it with all the strength she could muster, crying excitedly: "What do you mean, sir? What do you mean? Give me back my dollar."

Moths fly against the candle flame because their eyes can bear only a small amount of light. When, therefore, they come within the light of a candle their sight is overpowered and their vision confused, and as they cannot distinguish objects they pursue the light itself and fly against the flame. "Tell me the worst, doctor!"
"Well, since you insist—you owe me just ninety-six dollars and seventy-five cents."
